Trade School Meeting on Thursday

There will be a meeting to finalize Hope's application for location of the regional state trade school in this city at 7:30 Thursday night at the city hall.

The announcement by Bill Gunter, president of Hope Chamber of Commerce, was mailed to all persons who attended the initial meeting on the trade school project March 5-but he reminded the city that all residents of Hope's trade area who are interested in helping are invited to Thursday's session.

Here is Mr. Gunter's announcement:

"Another meeting of the above mentioned group has been called for Thursday evening, May 21, at the city hall court room beginning at 7:30. The meeting will not be limited to the above-mentioned group only, but is open to any citizen of the Hope area who is interested in helping us with this project.

"Ask anyone that you desire to come along with you for we hope to complete our plans for the official application for this school and get it into the Office of the Commissioner of Education for the State of Arkansas at the earliest possible date. The various committees should have their work completed and ready to present to us at that time.

"Please make a special effort to be present."

Teachers in Utah Return to Schools

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—Utah's 10,000 public school teachers have voted to end a two-day walkout, after preparing for the next round in their fight for more money for education.

About 90 per cent of the teachers voted Tuesday to resume teaching today, but they also decided not to sign next year's contracts until a special legislative session is called to consider an emergency $6 million school appropriation, and other demands are met.

The normal time for signing teachers' contracts has gone by. Chances of recruiting new teachers from out of state appear slim. The National Education Association asked its 992,000 members not to accept jobs in Utah until the crisis is over.

Besides the legislative session, the teachers asked at a mass meeting for approval of Utah Education Association solutions to "the financial problems of the educational situation."

Shortening the 1964-65 school year has been discussed as one such solution.

Yachts Have Gone Into Sick Bay

GOSPORT, England (AP)—It was all quiet in the English Channel Tuesday: Britain's America's Cup yachts have gone into the sick bay.

Kurruwa V and Sovereign are the two British yachts racing for the privilege to take on the United States nominee in the 19th series off Rhode Island in September.

The first set of races ended with 14 to Sovereign, two to Kurruwa.

Sovereign, owned by millionaire Tony Boyden, is in dock for repairs to a keel damaged in a collision with a submerged wreck on Saturday.

Kurruwa went into dock for repairs to a leaky sternpost—something that gave her troubles in the early races.

Both yachts are due to resume training trials on Sunday. Those will be followed by a third set of trials off Nab Island in the English Channel. Then both yachts will be shipped to the United States for final trials off Rhode Island.

Prisoners Must Consent

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A federal judge has forbidden use of prisoners in line-ups unless police have the prisoners' permission.

Dist. Court Judge Abraham L. Freedman ruled Tuesday there was substantial merit in suits filed by two prisoners at the City Detention Center in Holmsburg. They contended forced participation in a line-up violated their constitutional rights.

2-Party Idea Is Issue in Election

LEACHVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Winthrop Rockefeller, Republican candidate for governor, said here Tuesday that the two-party idea would be an election issue this year.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus, the likely opponent to Rockefeller in the November general election, wisecracked several hours later:

"Mr. Rockefeller should know. He's got two parties already."

The remark was a reference to a factional fight in the Arkansas GOP. Rockefeller leads one group against one headed by William L. Spicer, the party chairman.

Both statements were made in interviews after activities related to Leachville's observance of Industrial Appreciation Day.

Faubus spoke to about 300 persons at a banquet. He reviewed his administration.

Rockefeller made a brief non-political talk during the dedication of Florafax Delivery, Inc., a florists' service.

Later he told newsmen that the GOP platform would be announced about June 15, and that the two-party system would be an election issue.

He said the issues would make many Democrats vote Republican in November.

Fire Destroys Gibson Home

Suggests Spicer Quit GOP Post

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Bill Poynter, chairman of the Republican Party in Miller County, has suggested that William Spicer resign as GOP chairman.

It was learned Tuesday that Poynter, of Texarkana, sent Spicer a telegram Monday. The telegram said:

"I cannot support any such move as Republicans for Faubus. Any party official supporting such a movement, or encouraging such, should immediately resign from the Republican Party of Arkansas."

Spicer said such a move was not impossible when he wrote 17 Republicans a letter last week asking them to attend a meeting in Hot Springs. The meeting apparently was to organize opposition to GOP gubernatorial candidate Winthrop Rockefeller.

Poynter, a backer of Rockefeller for governor and Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona for the GOP presidential nomination, is one of the two recommended delegates from the 4th Congressional District to the GOP National Convention in San Francisco.

James Grimes, a member of the state GOP Executive Committee, said at Jonesboro that Spicer should resign if he gets a vote of no confidence when the Central Committee meets Thursday in Little Rock.

"He'll do the (Republican) party more good in the Faubus camp than he's doing in his present position," Grimes said.

Grimes is one of the two recommended delegates to the GOP convention from the 2nd Congressional District.

Rockefeller, who probably will face Gov. Orval E. Faubus in the November general election, has said Spicer's usefulness to the party has ended.

Group Quickly Approves More Viet Nam Aid

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Foreign Affairs Committee quickly and unanimously approved today an added $125 million in military and economic aid for South Viet Nam's struggle against communism.

Even as it acted, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara went before the Armed Services Committee, and said American soldiers in Viet Nam "are receiving the best equipment available for the unique task at hand."

There have been charges that use of obsolete planes had caused the deaths of two American fliers.

The Armed Services Committee released a copy of the statement McNamara presented to it in closed session.

Members of the committee were expected to question him closely.

The chairman, Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., said in an opening statement, also released by the committee that "I want every member to feel free to develop any thought he may wish to express or ask any question that he thinks is pertinent to this inquiry."

Vinson said that he had asked McNamara to answer the points raised in various news reports about the deaths of the pilots who were flying T-28 propeller-driven planes in South Viet Nam.

The secretary was also in for questioning about over-all development of the U.S.-backed fight against communist guerrillas.

McNamara recalled the contribution of Kosciuszko, V. Steuben and Pulaski to the fledgling United States and said "the mission of our men in South Viet Nam is the same as the mission of those Europeans who came to assist us in our fight for liberty."

"Let me be clear," McNamara said. "We are sending highly skilled and trained men to Viet Nam. We intend to continue this commitment and the Vietnamese intend to win the fight."

"The road ahead will be long and hard. But it is not in our tradition to back off when the going gets tough."

Wallace Gets 42% of Vote in Maryland

By LOUIS G. PANOS

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Sen. Daniel B. Brewster, running as a stand-in for President Johnson, defeated Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace in a Maryland presidential primary clouded by a close vote and a murky legal question.

In a Democratic race panned on his opposition to the civil rights bill pending in the Senate, Wallace drew 212,068 votes Tuesday, 42.66 per cent of the party total.

It was better than his showing in Indiana—29.8 per cent—or Wisconsin—33.7—and he claimed vindication in the Maryland vote of his stand against the rights bill originated by John F. Kennedy and pushed by Johnson.

Brewster, 41, a former Marine elected to the Senate only two years ago, was elated by his effort to preserve Maryland's 48 national nominating convention votes for Johnson.

He had been tapped by the party organization—with Johnson's blessing—to take on Wallace in a border state with a recent history of racial strife marked by repeated outbreaks.

Thinks Some Rights Doubt Are Solved

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., said today after a caucus of Republican senators he believed many doubts about the equal employment provision in the civil rights bill had been satisfied.

Other GOP senators, however, said they would like to see the provision sharply restricted in scope and that they would make such proposals later.

The closed conference was the second held by the Republicans to explain a package of amendments of the bill agreed on by Senate leaders with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy. Dirksen is the chief author of the package.

The session was devoted almost entirely to the equal employment opportunity provision, with most of the time consumed by an explanation of the proposed changes.

Another conference was called for Friday. Dirksen said some additional revisions probably will be proposed then but that he doubted whether any substantial changes would be made.

After a session Tuesday on the 10 other titles of the bill, Dirksen said he is confident some senators have been swayed to the side of closure.

"I believe we have satisfied a good many people on a good many things," he said.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the assistant Democratic leader, made the same claim on his side after a party conference on the package of amendments worked out by Senate leaders with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Dirksen told newsmen, however, he does not think the Southern filibuster can be shut off before early June.

The title against job discrimination takes up about half of the bill's 55-page text and has aroused much opposition among Republicans.

Dirksen, chief author of the package of amendments, devoted many of his proposed changes to this section.

He said in advance of today's caucus he is confident these amendments will meet substantially the objections to the provision as it cleared the House.

McAnwile, Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., told a reporter he will support closure when he is convinced the time has come to settle the controversial legislation.

But he said there must be more debate now that the leaders have proposed a package of 7 amendments.

Sen. Frank Lautenberg, D-N.J., said he will vote to close debate if necessary to pass the bill. He said the proposed amendments "appear to have greatly improved the bill."

With most of the maneuvering over the bill taking place off the Senate floor, Southern senators are prepared to continue their lengthy speeches against it in the chamber. This is the sixth day of the debate.

Would Provide Summer Jobs

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Mayor Jimmie Edwards has outlined to the city council a way to provide summer jobs, beautify Blytheville and put money in the pockets of industrious teen-agers.

The plan: Have the city Engineering Department hire 10th and 11th graders who promise to return to school in the fall to trim parkways, mow grass, clean up vacant lots and sweep intersections.

The wage scale suggested is 50 cents an hour for a 40-hour five-day week.

"It's hard work and low pay, but we think it'll keep the boys satisfied," Edwards said.

Two-thirds of the money for the project would come from the regular city budget, he said, and the rest from residents who would pay to have lots cleaned, etc.

New Program to Be Tried in Hempstead

Special ACP Project - Hempstead County.

Hempstead is one of the three counties in the State approved for cost-sharing under a new program entitled Special ACP Project. The other counties selected are Boone and Randolph in north Arkansas.

The new project is designed essentially as a conservation measure. Serious conservation problems exist on many farms in Hempstead County as well as the state and nation as a whole. This new pilot program is a cost-sharing arrangement between the farm operator and the Federal Government.

It is similar to the regular ACP but is more selective and limited in scope. Where the regular program has 21 conservation practices, the new project has only two practices approved. Since all types of conservation work cost a great deal of money and the need is so great, the Congress appropriates funds each year to assist the farmer in meeting the conservation problems.

This new program, like the regular ACP, is a partnership arrangement whereby the general public bears a part of the cost of preserving our soil water, and timber resources for future generations.

The County Committee selected the most serious problem facing farmers of the county in the development of the new program. In the judgement of the committee, the problem that needs priority in Hempstead County is erosion control.

The two practices selected to meet this need are establishment and/or improvement of permanent type pastures. This special project approach merely sets aside some ACP funds to speed up treatment of the most serious conservation problems. Local people, interested in conservation, decide on the conservation problems which need priority attention.

The purpose of the project is to concentrate cost-sharing assistance on a single conservation problem recognized by local people as urgent and to test the effectiveness of this type of approach to ACP cost-sharing. Full details of this special project type program may be obtained by contacting the local ASCS County Office. Interested farmers and others are invited to call at the office for additional information.

Spicer May Not Seek Re-election

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—William L. Spicer, chairman of the Arkansas Republican Party, said Tuesday he would not resign his position, but might not seek re-election.

His term ends in August. Reports circulated in GOP circles that Spicer might be asked to resign when the party Central Committee meets in Little Rock Thursday.

"I don't care what they try to do," Spicer said.

"It has been my thinking for many, many months that I may not seek re-election based on the fact that any state chairman, national committeeman and committeewoman must work as a team," he said.

"It is evident that the committeeman (Winthrop Rockefeller) and I see things quite differently as to the way the party should be directed," Spicer said. "If I did not seek re-election it would be for the good of the party."

Rockefeller, Republican candidate for governor, said Sunday that Spicer's usefulness, "if he ever had any," has ended.

The remark came after Spicer and other Republicans met at Hot Springs in what apparently was planned as an anti-Rockefeller revolt.

Spicer called the meeting in a letter in which he said the formation of a "Republicans for Fausb" group was not out of the question.

Will Spicer back Rockefeller for governor?

"He has never asked me for my support," Spicer said.

Does Spicer aspire to any political office?

"No," Spicer said.

It was evident that not all the members of the Rockefeller faction of the party thought it was a good idea to demand Spicer's resignation.

Rockefeller admitted in an interview in Leachville that the GOP feud had attracted considerable interest and that this indicated the party was stronger.

At stake when the central committee meets will be the naming of a national committeeman, filling out the term of William Townsend, who resigned. Mrs. Sue Jameson of Magnolia is committeewoman. Rockefeller backs Mrs. Frank McGillicuddy of Little Rock for committeewoman, and is expected to seek election to the committeeman's post.

The committee also will name 12 delegates to the GOP National Convention, to be held in San Francisco this summer. Eight of the delegates will be from each of the four congressional districts—two from each district—and four delegates will be selected at large.

"DEAR ABBY"

A SALUTO TO ALASKA!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I write with compulsion tonight. I can no longer contain my pride in my town, my state, my nation. Where do I start? I have seen people who have lost dear ones. People who have lost only some of their worldly possessions, and people who have lost everything. But no backs are bowed. The cooperation and organization is astounding! From teen-agers who offer to baby-sit for their neighbors so that they may salvage what they can from their wrecked homes, to engineers and survey crews already working to rebuild. Restoration of transportation, mail, service, water, newspapers, power, has begun and even the corner grocery store is swept up, mopped up, and sometimes propped up, but open for business. What a heroic job our radio hams did, working night and day to relay messages to loved ones. And the American Red Cross! And the generosity of our sister states! I could go on and on. Let no man say that we are "soft," that we Americans are weak. I have seen our strength and I am overwhelmed.

A PROUD ALASKAN

Dear Abby: This is for the cocktail waitress who complained because she had to wear a short, low-cut, sexy looking uniform on her job: A decent girl wouldn't go out in public that way. Girls who show off their bodies in the line of duty, such as strippers and models, have no shame or modesty, and would just as soon stand naked in a department store window as say "How do you do?" Any woman who would be ashamed to have her child go into the place where she is working and say, "There is MY mother!" should change jobs. And if she is standing there with most of her front exposed, and half of behind her sticking out I mean HER!

FOR DECENCY IN N. Y.

Dear Abby: You advised that shortskirted cocktail waitress who complained about her hours and the men customers making passes at her to get a job with shorter hours and longer skirts. That is easier said than done. Six years ago my husband walked out and left me with five children under ten years of age. I had never worked a day in my life and was trained for nothing. I took a job as a shortskirted cocktail waitress. It wasn't easy, but it beat charity. I have been able to support my family and provide insurance for their future educations. If men customers get rough, I tell them in a nice way that I have five children to support and a scene could cost me my job. They never give me any trouble after that. I work five days a week from 7 P.M. until 2 A.M. and take home about $160 a week. I am a PTA president, Cub Scout den mother, blood donor and a one-day-a-week hospital volunteer. I am also—

A SHORT-SKIRTED WAITRESS

Dear Short-Skirted: You are also a far-sighted woman. And justifiably proud.

Dear Abby: I am graduating from eighth grade in June and all the girls in my class are wearing white dresses. My older sister graduated from eighth grade two years ago and my mother wants me to wear the same dress SHE wore. I am afraid everybody will remember it and know that I am wearing my sister's old dress. We haven't got the money for a new dress and my sister's is very pretty and as good as new, but I still feel funny about it. I hate to hurt my mother's feelings, but I would sure like a new dress. What should I do?

HAND-ME-DOWNS

Dear Girl Graduate: Wear the dress, honey, and don't give it a second thought. It is the way a person wears a garment that makes it lovely. And chances are, not one person will remember having seen it before.

SMITTE IN MILL VALLEY

Dear Abby: If those yokels who accuse you of using an old picture with your column had any sense they could see that you have a 1964 hair style! Sincerely, of violence in Cambridge. Brewster wound up with 264,613 votes, 53.23 per cent of the total. The remaining 4 per cent were cast by voters preferring Andrew J. Easter, Baltimore draftsman, or an unstructured delegation to the national convention.

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., 90212. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

"We made the fight and won and I'm glad," said Brewster.

He aimed this parting shot at Wallace: "In baseball, anyway, it's three strikes and you're out."

Wallace didn't see it that way. "This Maryland vote," he said, "should let them know in Washington and in both national parties that they can't get rid of us by calling us bad names."

The governor hinted of a possible technical challenge of the results because of Maryland's old unit vote system. Similar to the Electoral College vote in presidential elections, it makes it possible for a candidate to win a primary even though he trails in the popular vote.

A U.S. District Court in Baltimore has nullified the unit vote system in Maryland primaries for statewide office. It has set a hearing for Monday on a suit to apply the ban to the presidential primary also.

Brewster led in enough counties and Baltimore city districts to get a 92-79 margin in unit votes. But his popular vote edge in Baltimore County, which has 14 unit votes, was only 106 out of 93,000 cast.

A reversal of the unofficial vote in that county when the official count is taken in about a week could change the unit vote picture, but Atty. Gen. Thomas B. Finan has said this would be meaningless.

They can't change the rules in the middle of the game," Wallace insisted. An aide said the Baltimore County canvass would be closely observed.

RFK Has Talked About Senate

NEW YORK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy says he has had conversations about the possibility of running for the U.S. Senate from New York next fall but, "All things being equal it would be better for a citizen of New York to run for the position."

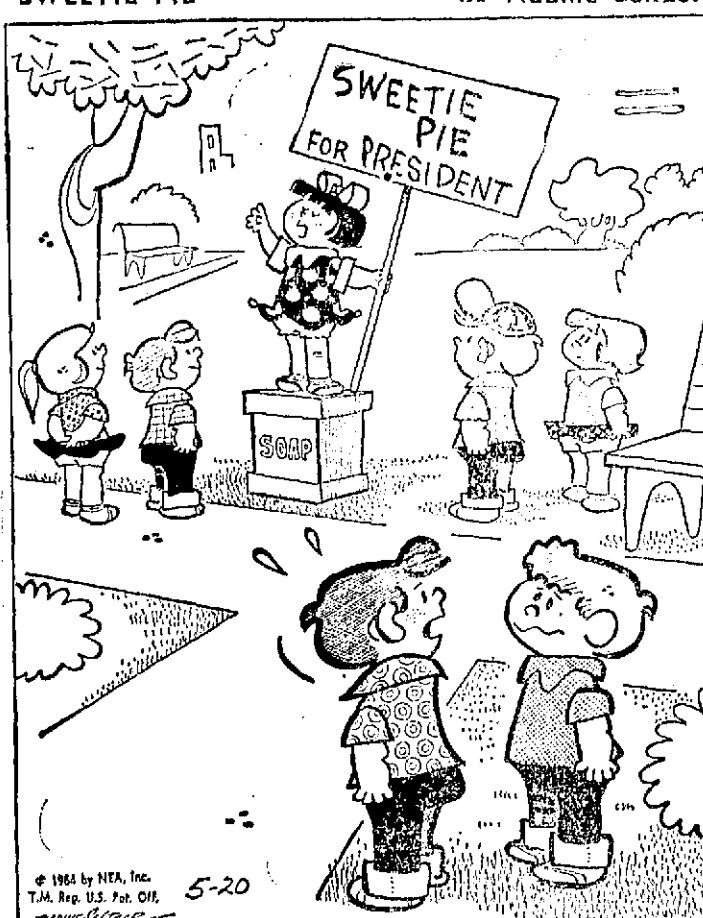

Kennedy told a news conference Tuesday that friends had raised the possibility of his seeking Democratic nomination to the Senate.

"I have no plans other than staying on as attorney general" until after the November election, he said.

New York Democrats are looking for a candidate to oppose Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating in November.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

Mrs. William Elliot Thomas

In an impressive candle light service at the Rocky Mount Baptist Church, Miss Juanita Marie Messer and William Elliot Thomas exchanged their marriage vows at six o'clock Friday evening, May 15, 1964.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Messer of Hope and the groom is the son of Mrs. Charles Oscar Thomas III, and the late Mr. Thomas also of Hope.

Lighted tapers and Southern Smilax provided the background for the double ring ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Carlton Roberts.

Mrs. Wade Warren, pianist, played a program of nuptial music including "Always" and "Whither Thou Goest." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The candles were lighted by Mrs. Glen Calhoun and Miss Carla Purdie, cousins of the bride. They wore identical Apricot Peau de soie dresses with matching accessories and their flowers were Talisman carnation wristlets.

Mrs. Raymond Clark, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Winston Duke and Miss Janet Roberts. Their dresses were also of Apricot Peau de soie with matching accessories. They carried small white baskets of Talisman roses and Eucalyptus foliage.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Peau de soie and Chantilly lace, fashioned with a scoop neckline, fitted bodice with long sleeves ending in lily points over the hands, and fastened with tiny covered buttons in the back. The full-length bell-shaped skirt was fashioned with a semi-train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a bell-boy cap of Peau de soie encrusted with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of Butterfly rose buds and Galaxie foliage.

Charles Oscar Thomas IV, of San Diego, California served his brother as best man. The groomsmen were Gerald Whitley and Henry Sommerville, Jr. They also served as ushers.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Messer chose pink lace with white accessories. Her corsage was a purple-throated Cymbidium orchid. The mother of the groom was attired in green shantung, with matching accessories and her corsage was a gold Cymbidium orchid. Mrs. Warren Pickard, grandmother of the bride was dressed in a blue printed silk with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Clark in Southland Heights. The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Billy Wayne Mitchell who introduced them to the receiving line. Miss Barbara Lee Piercy, cousin of the bride, presided at the guest register.

The serving table was beautiful with a floor length white taffeta and net cloth centered with an arrangement of Talisman roses and Eucalyptus foliage, flanked by Apricot tapers in crystal holders. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Travis Ward and Mrs. F. J. Bruce presided at the punch bowl. Nuts and mints were served by Mrs. Arles Ilonea and Mrs. T.J. Barber.

For travel, the bride wore a printed silk suit with beige coat and matching accessories and pinned a corsage of Butterfly rose buds a her shoulder.

Charley Finley, who is busy suing Kansas City these days, ought to start his legal beagles working on an indictment against an ex-employee on hit-and-run charges.

Finley may not have had time to notice but his ballclub ran into an old friend in Baltimore Tuesday night and the collision was devastating — for the A's.

Norm Siebern, who used to do his stuff in Finley Gold and Green, saw his ex-mates for the first time and he gave them plenty to tell the old boss about.

The rangy first baseman stroked three hits, the last one a game-winning homer in the 10th inning, as the Orioles nipped the Athletics 3-2. His first-inning single drove in another run and he scored the Orioles' other marker on Boog Powell's double after walking in the eighth.

The three hits ran Siebern's average to .336. Jim Gentile, the man Finley got for Siebern, went 1-for-4 for Kansas City dropping his average to .267.

Elsewhere in the American League, Boston pushed across four runs in a weird ninth inning to nip Los Angeles 4-3. Chicago outlasted Cleveland 6-5. Detroit topped Washington 5-2. Minnesota went 13 innings before whipping the Yankees 7-2.

In the National League, Houston beat Pittsburgh 3-1. Milwaukee drowned Cincinnati 4-2. Chicago dropped St. Louis 7-4. Los Angeles whipped New York 6-4 and San Francisco took over first place, blanking Philadelphia 3-0.

Siebern connected against John Wyatt leading off the 10th to win it for Dick Hall, Baltimore's third pitcher. Orioles starter Robin Roberts carried a 2-1 lead into the ninth but Charley Jimenez doubled and Charley Lau singled to tie it before Stu Miller came on and halted the rally.

Archie starter Moe Drabowsky struck out 10 before leaving for a pinch hitter in the ninth. Bo Belinsky was breezing with a three-hitter for the Angels when the Red Sox staged a Hollywood ending to pull their victory out.

Leading 3-0 with two out and none on in the bottom of the ninth, Belinsky seemed home free. But he walked Dick Stuart then Manager Bill Rigney brought in Barry Latham.

Latham walked Bob Tillman and then forced in a run by hitting Roman Mejias. In came Don Lee and pinch hitter Dalton Jones rocked his 3-2 pitch for a base-clearing double to win it.

Don Mossi tanned pinch hitter Johnny Romano to end a Cleveland rally in the ninth inning and preserve the White Sox victory. The Indians came up with two runs on only one hit in the ninth, knocking out Sox starter

Giant Player Lost Indefinitely

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—San Francisco pitcher Jim Duffalo was declared out of the Giant line-up indefinitely after a medical examination Tuesday showed the right-hander had suffered a cracked ninth rib and a strained muscle below his 12th rib.

Duffalo pitched three scoreless innings Monday against the New York Mets before leaving with a 1-1 count on the first batter in the fourth.

Arkansas in Victory Over Portland

PORTLAND Ore. (AP)—Wayne Graham walloped a home run to start Arkansas to a 5-2 conquest of Portland in a Pacific Coast League baseball game here Tuesday night.

The triumph left Arkansas on the short end of the four-game series, 3-1.

Graham also doubled in the second inning to score Norm Gigon and Lee Elia, and Elia scored again in the third inning with Adolph Phillips on a double by Pat Corrales.

Tony Martinez doubled and scored on a single by Duke Sims in the eighth inning. Martinez singled to score Gordon Lund for Portland in the ninth.

The Travelers are idle today, but open a series with Seattle Thursday at Seattle.

Portland 000 000 011—2 7 1
Kroll and Corrales; Weaver, Nischwitz (3), Allen (7), Curtis (3) and Sims.

Gary Peters and reliever Hoyt Wilhelm before Mossi ended it. Detroit stretched its winning streak to four straight as Dave Wickersham became the first Tiger pitcher to win five games.

Norm Cash and Bill Bruton homered against Washington before Buster Narum. Don Zimmer homered for the Senators.

Minnesota and New York struggled through 12 innings tied at 2-2 before the Twins broke it open in the 13th. An RBI double by Rich Rollins, who had homered earlier, and Ron Allison's sacrifice fly pushed two runs across before Jimmie Hall wrapped it up with a three-run shot into the right field seats.

Jim Poland, who worked the first 12 innings—the most any pitcher has gone this season—won it and Hal Reniff, who had broke it open in the 13th, scored in a 16-13 scoreless in the ninth. The Twins snapped by the Twin rally, lost it.

State Teachers won the AIC track title, was second in cross country, bowling and swimming; tied for second in basketball; was third in football and baseball; sixth in golf and seventh in tennis.
Other finishers behind State Teachers and Tech were Arkansas A&M, Ouachita Baptist College, Henderson State Teachers, Hendrix, Harding, Southern State, Arkansas College and the College of the Ozarks.

Finals in Tryouts for the Olympics
NEW YORK (AP) — Buster Mathis, an agile, springy mount of a man at 295 pounds, and Joe Frazier, the slaughterhouse smasher who weighs 100 pounds less, meet tonight in the climax bout of the Olympic Boxing Trials finals at the World's Fair.
Frazier, a fast, dynamic puncher who has knocked out his last six foes, is the favorite of most of the experts who saw the exciting semifinals in the 18,000-seat Singer Bowl Tuesday night.
The 20-year-old, 195-pound Philadelphia, stopped Clay Hodges, a 6-foot-4, 201-pounder from Torrance, Calif., in 2:46 of the second round. A fast left-right combination to the jaw dropped the 22-year-old Californian for seven and the referee stopped it seconds later.
Mathis, a 19-year-old, 6-3 AAU champion from Grand Rapids, Mich., gained a split decision over left-handed Tyrone (The Brute) Hollins, a 6-1, 196-pound Army champion from Coffeyville, Kan.
Although Buster admitted he had trouble with the southpaw style, he seemed to have deserved a unanimous verdict on the strength of his big second round alone. He shook up the soldier several times with his quick combinations and clubbing rights to the head.

Palmer Is Thinking of the Open
DALLAS (AP) — Arnold Palmer says "I find myself thinking of the Open more this year than ever before."
This means he was slowly and methodically getting himself ready for the second leg on his projected golfing Grand Slam—the Masters, National Open, British Open and U.S. PGA.
He already has won the Masters. The Open, at Bethesda, Md., is a month away.
Palmer was here Tuesday to play in an exhibition with Byron Nelson, Tony Lema and Bob Charles. He shot a one-under-par 70, a score matched by Charles over the 6,600-yard Brook Hollow Golf Club course.
"Last year I felt I got ready too early, so this time I'm taking it easy and making sure particularly that I'm physically ready," said Palmer. He added that he had done the same thing before the Masters.
Palmer has played in 11 tournaments, won two and finished in the first five places six times. He has taken down $41,673, which puts him only $2,625 behind the year's leader, Jack Nicklaus.
Arnie said that "from tee to green I've been playing very well. I haven't been putting too well, but I putted much better at Oklahoma City."
He won the Oklahoma City Open Monday with one of the come-from-behind finishes for which he is noted.
"I think I'll be at my peak by the time the Open comes around," said Palmer.
With a heavy schedule of tournaments and exhibitions, Palmer appeared a little tired. But he insisted that he felt fine, was in good spirits and demonstrated his golf talents for a crowd of 2,200 that paid about $4,000 to the Crippled Children's Society of Dallas.

Trav Manager Suspended
SEATTLE (AP) — Arkansas Manager Frank Lucchesi was suspended for three days and fined $50 Tuesday by Pacific Coast League President Dewey Soriano.
The action came because Lucchesi flipped the cap from the head of umpire Ociebe Jelks in a ruckus in a game with San Diego at Little Rock.
Jelks, who reported the incident, made no recommendation on what action should be taken.
Players and managers cannot touch umpires or their equipment during a game.

Sanford Moves Giants to Top by Single Game

By MIK00E RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
The San Francisco Giants are wild about Jack Sanford today, but for being wild there's nothing in National League history that tops Ernie Broglio's performance.

Sanford, purposely held out of Monday's game against New York so he could open the key series against league-leading Philadelphia, responded with a four-hit, 3-0 victory over the Phillies Tuesday night that moved the Giants into the top spot by one game.

But if the Giants were cheering Sanford, the Chicago Cubs probably had to muffle their laughter over the plight of Broglio, the St. Louis right-hander, who matched a league record by uncorking three wild pitches in one inning.

Andre Rodgers started the wild seventh inning for the Cubs with a walk and proceeded to steal second. He didn't have to steal third. Broglio wild pitched him there. After Dick Bertelli walked, Broglio fired another one past Cardinal catcher Bob Uecker, who was beginning to get more exercise than a relay team.

Bertelli reached second while Rodgers held third on the heave. Cub pitcher Dick Ellsworth then attempted a squeeze bunt with the count two strikes, but missed. Uecker, however, immediately pivoted and headed to the backstop for wild pitch No. 3 as Rodgers scored and Ellsworth reached first.

That was all for Broglio. The Cubs weren't through, however, and went on to score three runs in the inning on only one hit—building a 4-00 lead that led to a 7-4 victory. The loss left St. Louis in third place, two games back.

Elsewhere, Dick Tracewski played the key role as the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the New York Mets 6-4. Warren Spahn won his 353rd game in Milwaukee's 4-2 triumph over Cincinnati and Houston downed Pittsburgh 3-1.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox held first place by edging Cleveland 6-5. Minnesota belted the New York Yankees 7-2 in 13 innings. Baltimore nipped Kansas City 3-2 in 10. Detroit took Washington 5-2 and Boston beat the Los Angeles Angels 4-3.

Sanford, now 4-3, was locked in a scoreless duel with Dennis Bennett until the seventh when Jim Hart collected his third hit, moved to second on a sacrifice and scored on Del Crandall's single. Sanford drove Crandall in with the second run of the inning, stroking a single that was bobbled by Wes Covington.

Hart went 4-for-4 on the night, driving in the final run in the eighth after Willie Mays walked. Mays walked three times and was 0-for-1 officially as his average dipped to .404.

Besides the help from Broglio in the seventh, the Cubs got some help in the eighth, scoring what turned out to be the decisive run when Ron Santo reached base on Dick Groat's error and eventually scored on Dick Bertelli's single. Ken Boyer drove in four runs for the Cardinals, two with homer. Billy Williams and Santo homered in support of Ellsworth, 3-4.

Tracewski singled in two runs with the bases loaded in the third for the Dodgers, then doubled and scored in the sixth. Tracewski's key single provided Phil Ortega with a 5-1 lead and he held on as the Mets rallied in the late innings. The Dodgers had scored twice in the first without a hit, using a walk, a hit batter, an infield out and a passed ball.

Spahn and Sam Ellis of the Reds were locked in a 1-1 tie until the eighth inning when Milwaukee pulled out front on homers by Lee Maye and Joe Torre. Rico Carty homered in the ninth for the Braves while Gordy Coleman connected for the Reds. Spahn allowed just six Ellis is 2-1.

Thes Colts had not scored in 25 innings when Al Spangler finally broke the drought with a two-run single in the fifth inning. Walt Bond's homer in the sixth inning accounted for the other run. Bob Bruce won it for a 5-1 record but needed Hal Woodeshick's relief help in the seventh when the Pirates scored their only run.

Portland, Ore. (AP)—Arkansas batters collected 12 hits off four Portland pitchers as they defeated the Beavers 5-2 in Tuesday night's Pacific Coast League baseball game.

Oiler, Chargers to Play in State

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The San Diego Chargers and the Houston Oilers will play an exhibition football game here Aug. 15 with net proceeds to be used to start a fund for the expansion of War Memorial Stadium.
Sponsoring the game between the American Football League teams is a new committee to be appointed by Gov. Orval F. Faubus. The committee will oversee the $1.6 million expansion of the stadium, where the professional game will be played.
San Diego, AFL champion last year, features the running and pass catching of former University of Arkansas great Lance Alworth. Former Razorback Danny Brabham plays for Houston.
The ticket purchasing priority system used by the University of Arkansas will be in effect until July 1 for ordering tickets to the pro game.

Coach Frank Broyles already had removed the players—Mike Hales of Little Rock and Stan Sparks of Amarillo, Tex.,—from the football squad. He said they will not be allowed to return to the team.
The university disciplinary committee, acting on the same infraction, "acted similarly," Bob Cheyne said.
Cheyne, university sports publicist, said a third Razorback—Jerry Mooly of El Dorado—had been placed on one year's probation and would not play this fall.

Reason for the dismissal was not disclosed.
Sparks, a 195-pound senior, was first team defense left end Hales, a 195-pound junior, was first team defensive middle guard. Mooly, a sophomore tailback, scored the touchdown that gave the Whites a 10-3 triumph in the intra-squad that closed spring practice May 9.

Hales, who lettered as a sophomore, missed action last year because of a knee injury. Sparks had lettered twice. Mooly is the brother of 1959 All-American halfback Jim Mooly.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The football rebuilding program at the University of Arkansas was set back Tuesday when two key players were dismissed from school.

AP and NBC Sign an Agreement

NEW YORK (AP)—The Associated Press and NBC News entered into an agreement today to provide to Associated Press members "NBC's electronic vote analysis" of elections.

The announcement was made jointly by William R. McAndrew, executive vice president in charge of NBC News and Wes Gallagher, general manager of The Associated Press.

The National Broadcasting Co.'s service, called "electronic vote analysis," utilizes a bank of RCA 301 and RCA 3301 computers to furnish extensive data explaining and comparing the results in the presidential election—nationally, and by state—and in all gubernatorial and senatorial races. The material will be used by AP in its daily news report to its 8,000 members and subscribers around the world.

The Associated Press will continue its traditional comprehensive vote tabulations of all races in all states separately from NBC's tabulation.

"Use of our EVA data by the world's foremost wire service is testimony to its effectiveness, as demonstrated in NBC News' coverage of the Oregon primary elections last Friday," McAndrew said.

"This analysis of voting trends and speedy interpretation of returns brings to Associated Press members the advantages of the latest electronic techniques to supplement The Associated Press' basic task of tabulating election results on local and national levels," Gallagher said.

"To gather this information manually would take months of work and tens of thousands of man hours," he added. "By use of electronic vote analysis this information will be available election night."

Although the agreement with The Associated Press is exclusive, NBC News may, at its discretion, provide the same service directly to AP newspaper members.

The analysis is based on a mass of detailed information that has been pre-stored in the computers, including all vote histories and data on "tag areas." The tag areas are precincts, wards and counties that have been selected by NBC News to represent the political behavior pattern of groups within an electorate.

The computers can provide differential analysis, showing any deviation from the norm,

Draft Lodge Move in California

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Leaders of the Draft Lodge Committee scheduled a news conference today amid speculation that they will support Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in the California primary.

Paul Grindle, national campaign chairman for the committee to draft Henry Cabot Lodge for the Republican presidential nomination, was to make "an important statement" at the news conference.

Grindle declined on Sunday night to disclose the committee's intentions, saying only that the statement concerned the June 2 California primary.

Only the names of Rockefeller and Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater will appear on the Republican presidential primary ballot. Write-ins are not allowed in California.

Crime Is Falling Off in Chicago

By SEYMOUR M. HERSH
CHICAGO (AP)—Crime — of all things — is falling off in rough, tough Chicago.

And most of the credit for the dropping crime rate belongs to Police Supt. Orlando W. Wilson 64, who says it's "all been easier than I thought it would be."

Wilson, a former dean of criminology at the University of California, is beginning his fifth year as head of the 13,000-man police department, one of the nation's largest.

When Wilson took over, some said it was also one of the most corrupt.

"I'm not going to bury my head in the sand," Wilson said in an interview Thursday. "There was a lot of corruption and graft in the department before I came."

Wilson said he had then and still have a lot of organized crime in Chicago. We haven't got it whipped yet, but we're working on it."

Last year while the nation's major crime rate rose 10 percent, a dropoff of more than 3 per cent was recorded in Chicago.

"We've broken the trend," Wilson said, and he gives much of the credit to a host of major revamping programs.

Wilson has a host of critics, many of them on the police force who sullenly refer to him as "the professor."

But he said they don't worry him.

Captors Not Told About JFK's Death

Run of Fair Ends After Eleven Days

NEW YORK (AP)—Dominick Tucci's run of the World's Fair ended Sunday after 11 days and nights. He thought it was a shame. He had planned to spend the summer there.

When Dominick, 12, left his Long Island home, he had heard that he was bound for the fair. And that's where they found him, still the object of a 17-state police alert.

Somewhat disheveled, but well-fed, Dominick was reunited with his parents, five sisters and a brother.

"I got away from seven cops and a woman had to catch me," he said.

The woman, Naomi Sallod, works at the fairgrounds and recognized him from newspaper pictures.

The boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benito Tucci, had gone to the fair in Flushing Meadow, Queens, every day to look for him, but with no luck.

Dominick started his safari by sneaking aboard a Long Island Rail Road train at Port Washington, his hometown.

He climbed a fence to get into the fair. He said he was thrown out a couple of times, but just climbed back again.

Dominick ate well, picking up $5 a day retrieving good luck coins tossed into several fountains.

For sleeping, Dominick secluded himself in several pavilions, including one with a ship board setting complete with lifeboat.

Was he afraid at night? "There's nothing to be afraid of," said Dominick. "The place is crawling with cops."

Was he glad he had been discovered? "I don't know," he said. "I'm a little homesick. I guess I'm glad."

Dominick's father is a bricklayer. His mother, Lillian, said of her oldest son, "He's adventurous, but not a bad boy."

Dominick, a seventh-grader at St. Peter's parochial school in Port Washington, is a Roman Catholic.

He said he ate hamburgers almost every day.

"I ate chow mein on Friday," he said.

revealed some aspects of their captivity in a brief meeting with Lt. Gen. Thomas W. Dunn, U.S. commander in Korea.

The conversation was tape-recorded at the military hospital and the Army released a transcript to newsmen. The Army has refused to allow a news conference.

Stults and Voltz, who were freed Saturday, remain under medical observation. Hospital officials described their condition as good.

Dunn raised the question of Kennedy's assassination. Voltz said he heard about it on Thanksgiving Day — six days later.

His guards were "very proud of the fact," Voltz said. "They had a big smile and said he had been shot by some loyal Communist party member in the United States."

Stults said: "I was told on Dec. 7 that he was assassinated. But that's the only thing they told me about it."

The two pilots were captured May 17, 1963, when their helicopter was forced down by Communist gunfire while they were inspecting border markers.

Stults said North Korean army officers turned them over to civilian guards 11 days later.

Rocky Wins, Nomination Is Wide Open

By JACK BELL

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Assessing Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's Oregon victory, Republican governors agreed generally today that the contest for the GOP presidential nomination remains wide open.

Some of the seven state chief executives who responded to invitations to comment on their party's political situation indicated they think the June 2 California primary may be a decisive factor in determining the nominee.

Rockefeller, who won Oregon's 18 convention votes in that state's balloting Friday, faces Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona in the last significant primary before the party convention opens here July 13.

Gov. John Anderson of Kansas, chairman of the National Governors' Conference, said the Oregon primary in which Rockefeller topped U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, "shows the Republican nominee in San Francisco is not settled yet."

"Goldwater certainly is leading in delegates but I don't think it's in the bag," Anderson said. Goldwater placed third in Oregon with Richard M. Nixon fourth.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie of Idaho said the Oregon results will increase the importance of the California primary outcome.

"If Goldwater wins in California," Smylie said, "it is likely that he will be nominated on the first ballot. If it looks like that is what is going to happen, it would be smart for the Idaho delegation to go along with him."

Gov. John H. Reed of Maine said Rockefeller's Oregon victory was "a tribute to his determination and his genuine appeal to the rank and file voters."

"It is also a demonstration," Reed said, "that Republicans want a moderate presidential candidate and one with proven ability as a vote-getter. The results certainly have boosted Gov. Rockefeller's stock and will make him a top contender at San Francisco."

Gov. John H. Chafee of Rhode Island said Rockefeller's Oregon victory had saved the New York governor's candidacy.

Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania, who has said he would accept a genuine draft for the presidential nomination but doesn't expect that to happen, said Rockefeller deserved to win in Oregon.

Scranton, whose name was on the ballot, finished last behind Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, among six contenders in the balloting.

"My hat is off to Gov. Rockefeller," Scranton said. "He campaigned long and worked very hard."

Gov. Archie Gubbrud of South Dakota, who has said he leans toward Goldwater but heads an uncommitted delegate slate in his state's June 2 primary, said he didn't think the Oregon results changed the standing of the candidates.

"I don't see any more significance in the Oregon primary than in any of the others," Gubbrud said. "It just happens to be the most recent and that's the one we talk about."

Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, scheduled to become temporary chairman of the July convention, said the results of his state's primary enhance Rockefeller's chances for the nomination. He said that, among other things, they proved the New York governor could win by hard campaigning.

Taught Need for Racial Schooling

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP)—John F. Kennedy "taught us the need for racial understanding," says evangelist Billy Graham. "More than any man in this generation he spoke courageously to this point."

Graham and Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, both native North Carolinians, offered the main tribute at a memorial service Sunday for Kennedy at the University of North Carolina.

In the audience of more than 10,000 were the late president's mother, Rose Kennedy, and his brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy.

The service, the first of its kind by a state, was to have been the setting for presentation of a check to Mrs. Kennedy to be used in building a library at Harvard University to house Kennedy's papers.

The presentation was delayed because contributions had not been tabulated. Gov. Terry Sanford told Mrs. Kennedy, however, the drive to raise the statewide quota of $230,000 was successful.

Graham said Kennedy's death by assassination last November taught the world the brevity of life.

El Dorado Ends Baker's Strike

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — A week-old strike at Colonial Baking Co. here came to an end Saturday with a contract accepted unanimously by striking production workers.

Forty-two members of Local 325 of the American Bakers and Confectioners Union (AFL-CIO) struck the firm May 9 for higher wages and other benefits.

E. G. Murray, secretary-treasurer for the union, said the new contract called for a 15-cent hourly increase for inside workers, a $10 weekly increase for relay drivers and a $6 weekly increase for helpers. All the wage increases were for a two-year period.

The new contract also gave four weeks vacation for workers with 25 or more years service.

The contract was the first for the drivers and helper who voted March 16 to be represented by the union.

The union's contract expired May 1.

ever, the drive to raise the statewide quota of $230,000 was successful.

Graham said Kennedy's death by assassination last November taught the world the brevity of life.
